Re: Ajay Bahl v. New York College of Osteopathic Medicine of New York Institute of Technology, et al., 14-CV-04020 (AKT)

Dear Judge Tomlinson:

Plaintiff Ajay Bahl in the above-referenced action writes to respectfully request a one-week extension of deadlines from the date of the last requested extension letter (undocketed as of the time of the writing) from July 23, 2021, to July 30, 2021, as set forth in the courts May 25, 2021 order. Plaintiff was advised that counsel on his behalf will be making an appearance this coming week prior to the date of the requested extension. Plaintiff apologizes for the delay and wants the court to know he has undertaken exhaustive efforts and done massive due diligence and exerted his best efforts to retain counsel that will sustain zealous representation through trial and beyond.

Respectfully Submitted,

Plaintiff

Re: *Ajay Bahl v. New York College of Osteopathic Medicine of
New York Institute of Technology, et al., 14-CV-04020
(AKT)*

Dear Judge Tomlinson:

Plaintiff Ajay Bahl in the above above-referenced action writes to respectfully request a two-week extension of deadlines from the currently scheduled July 9, 2021, to July 23, 2021, as set forth in the courts May 25, 2021, order. This is Plaintiff's second request for an extension, and Defendant NYIT consents to this request, and no other deadlines are affected.

Plaintiff requests this extension to allow for attorney's who have been engaged to finish reviewing the case file and finally enter an appearance on Plaintiff's behalf. Due to Covid -19, with many attorneys' working from home, it has been extra challenging to get in touch and have personable communications with attorney's to ask questions, and have their questions answered. Plaintiff has been advised by attorney's to request for additional time to avoid having to file.

As Plaintiff expects this to be his last filing as a pro se litigant, he wanted to thank the court for their patience and support over the past 3 months. Additionally, I wanted to express my gratitude, the EDNY pro se clinic under Attorney Wong, the pro se desk staff at Central Islip and Brooklyn for their individual
Respectfully Submitted,

Plaintiff
